

BEREAVED PARENTS SUPPORT GROUP

For parents who have experienced the death of a child.

“The mention of my child’s name may bring tears to my eyes, but it never fails to bring music to my ears.” ~Nancy Williams, Compassionate Friends

This group offers support and understanding to parents who have experienced the death of a child. Parents often find it comforting and helpful to be with others who have had a similar experience.

Our Aims Are:

- ❖ To bring together parents who have had a child die.
- ❖ To provide peer support to develop ongoing support networks.
- ❖ To facilitate monthly support meetings that includes speakers and discussions.
- ❖ To share books, pamphlets and resource materials.
